WYETH BEATEN AGAIN.

From his poor showing of yesterday at Washington Park many are beginning to think that Wyeth won a lucky race when he finished first in the American Derby. Favonius, which beat Lucien Appleby on a heavy track last week, came right back and beat Wyeth. The latter opened at 7 to 10 in the betting, but went up to even money by post time. To a fair start Favonius at once shot to the front and opened up a comfortable gap, which he held clear up to the last sixteenth post where Ranch, seeing Wyeth closing upon him, rallied his mount, Favonius reaching the wire a nose in front of Wyeth. Lyne, on the latter, rode an indifferent race. He appeared to be simply watching Nitrate for the first six furlongs and when he called on Wyeth, when well straightened for home, the colt was too far back to have a fair winning chance. Even at that Wyeth finished with a rush and would have won in another stride. Glen Water finished third, two lengths back of Wyeth. He ran the best race he has shown here this year. Omdurman ran well for seven furlongs. Nitrate could not extend himself at his best in the soft going.

Farmer Jim, held at 5 to 1 in the betting, just lasted long enough to beat Gold Bell a nose on the post in the day's opener, a dash of six furlongs for two-year-olds. Farmer Jim ran Lampoon into submission in the first half and appeared to be an easy winner in the last sixteenth, but had to be hustled out to the limit to beat the fast finishing Gold Bell. The latter was slightly outrun in the first half, but came with a splendid burst of speed in the final sixteenth. Flocarline was an indifferent third.

Arian sprung a surprise by taking the second race in handy fashion by one and a half lengths from Boaster, which finished two before Foundling for second place. Arian ran to his best form and never was in danger of losing the lead. Boaster tired when called upon in the final sixteenth. Caliban ran a dull race. Martin Bell showed her usual turn of speed, but could hold it only for seven furlongs.

Some of the best sprinters now in training in the west faced the barrier in the third race, a dash of six and a half furlongs. Rose Tree, on the strength of her good race of last Saturday, was made the favorite and rewarded her many backers by putting up the best race of her local career, winning easily by two lengths from Nickey D., which finished one in front of Waswift for second place. Rose Tree stood the hot pace set by Nickey D. with ease and came away quickly in the last eighth. Nickey D. showed sudden improvement. Elsie L. was right there for five furlongs, but tired when the last eighth struggle came up. Headwater appeared to be anchored by his weight. Escalante showed a flash of early speed.

Von Rouse won the fifth race easily by a length from Silver Fringe, which lasted long enough to beat out the fast-finishing Linguist a head on the post for second place. Silver Fringe displayed much speed for the first half, closely followed by Von Rouse, but in the last sixteenth the latter moved up and gradually wore down the former. Linguist ran an impressive race and bears watching from now on. King's Lady ran a dull race and was never a serious contender.

Lady Chorister, a rank outsider, took the last race, leading all the way and winning easily by two and one-half lengths from John McGurk, which beat Compass two and one-half for second place.

An unusually large Monday gathering was present and witnessed a fair day's sport. A heavy down pour of rain in the morning made the track somewhat soft. It dried out fast after the first race had been run and fair time was made thereafter.

LOCAL TURF GOSSIP.

Jockeys Coburn and Dade, who were suspended indefinitely by the Judges last week, were yesterday restored to favor and both boys will again be permitted to ride. The suspension was not to be lifted until today, but Buchanan's sudden illness after the second race made it necessary for Coburn to ride Nickey D.

S. C. Hildreth purchased Ravensbury from R. C. Tucker before the races for $800.

M. H. Tichenor & Co. have secured second call on jockey Ranch's services for the remainder of the season. The boy is under contract to Burns & Waterhouse.

The track yesterday was rapidly drying out and should no more rain visit the course there is still a chance for some records to be lowered before the meeting closes.

Jockey McCann, who was suspended by Judge Rees at New Orleans last winter for a bad-looking ride on Jessie Jarboe, had his first mount yesterday since Rees set him down. He rode Dr. Hart for M. Goldblatt, to whom he is under contract.

Albert Simons bid up and secured for $2,200 the two-year-old, Farmer Jim, which won the first race. Charley Ellison, his owner, offered to sell the colt last Saturday for $1,700. Simons was offered $2,500 for his new purchase immediately after he had secured him.

Jockey Buchanan was taken suddenly ill after he dismounted from Ravensbury. A doctor was hastily summoned, who pronounced the jockey suffering from a mild attack of pleurisy.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

James B. Haggin, probably the most extensive breeder of thoroughbreds in the world, has just added another imported sire to his Rancho del Paso breeding farm in California. This is the bay horse Galveston, by Galopin—Hamptonia, by Hampton. Galveston is a half brother to Sempronius, now in the stud at McGrathiana Farm, where he was placed by his owner and importer, H. Eugene Leigh. Galveston was a good winner during his racing career in England, and, among other races, he won the Finsburg Midweight Handicap, the Dorking Welter Handicap, and was placed in the Berenden Plate, Thames Handicap, Waverton Welter Plate, Victor Welter Handicap and July Stakes. In the latter he finished second, beating Diamond Jubilee.

According to a recent dispatch from New York many shrewd turfmen believe that the stable of J. R. & F. P. Keene may capture the rich Futurity this year with a youngster that has been kept under cover up to the present time. A remark made by James Rowe has set the trainers guessing. When a horseman remarked that Whitechapel is about the only Keene colt in the Futurity with a chance. Mr. Rowe offered to bet that Spencer or Shaw would ride a colt that will make it interesting for the other youngsters, and which has never started.

Several names have been mentioned, but shrewd observers think the youngster which is being fitted for the big event is Rigodon, a brown colt by the great English horse St. Gatien—Minuet. Rigodon is a grand looker, and trainers say his action is splendid. Mr. Rowe has not been hurrying him any, but the way he has moved impresses the rail birds.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Briggs, Louisville, Ky. Ethics carried 106 pounds and Hurst Park 122.

J. E. Madden has purchased the two-year-old chestnut colt Yardarm, by Henry of Navarre—Ysult, from August Belmont.

A. G., Chicago. Hans Wagner has not been owned by the Schorrs.

C. M. B., Chicago. Black Venus won the Lake-side Stakes at Washington Park June 28, 1898.

Winner—B. f. by Sir Dixon—Cherry Blossom (trained by R. Miller). Went to post at 2:30. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second driving. Feme Sole is in rare form, received a lucky start, indulged the pacemakers for a quarter and when called on quickly ran into a long and winning lead and was much the best. Wealth, away flatfooted, worked a rough journey to the stretch, where she closed up strongly and ran a remarkable race at the weight. Ben Mac Dhui went well and finished fast. The Amazon was nearly left and closed a tremendous gap. Daffadowndilly appears to sprint well as well as stay and is a pretty useful horse anywhere. Satire quit. Cuspidor got away poorly and, racing wide on the turns, made up ten lengths on the leaders in the last half.

Scratched—(33581) Irritable, 133; 33465 Rappenecker, 120; 33632 Himself, 118; 32622 Setauket, 117; 32709 Mercer, 117; (33128) Malden, 113; 26640 Mizpah, 112.

Winner—B. f. by Star Ruby—Shasta (trained by F. Littlefield). Went to post at 3:00. At post 3 minutes. Start good for all but Futurita. Won driving; second the same. Miss Dorothy, lucky throughout and skillfully handled, finished gamely and outstayed the others in a hard drive through the entire stretch. Bright Girl closed a gap and, after being an apparent winner a sixteenth out, tired right at the end and will improve. Intervention finished very strongly and ran like one above the average. Lady Charlot failed to stay, as usual, and Courtmard tired from following her early fast pace closely. Louise Elston was bumped at the start, but lacked speed throughout and ran a bad race.

Scratched—33129 Sweet Marjorie, 104; 33129 Madame Du Barry, 104; 33232 Roxboro, 104; 33533 Jeanne Marie, 104.

Winner—B. c. by Strathmore—Kelp (trained by P. Ryan). Went to post at 3:25. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Plohn ran a fine race, and, driving hard to keep up, finally wore Potente down at the end. The latter made the running apparently unextended, and, appearing a sure winner almost throughout, was only called on in the last sixteenth and failed unexpectedly. Alsike rather easily disposed of the other two. Ben Viking went well for six furlongs. San Andres showed very little speed today.

Scratched—31381 Black Dick, 111; 33605 East Kelston, 100; 33632 Gulden, 98.

Winner—B. c. by Kingston—Maurine (trained by J. Rowe). Went to post at 3:50. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won cleverly; second driving. Port Royal showed the way throughout except when he bolted and momentarily relinquished his lead on the stretch turn. He came again very strongly from the start to keep up and won going away. Peninsula is steadily improving, was under pressure from the start to keep up and stuck to his work very gamely. He shot into the lead for an instant when making a close stretch turn, but failed to hold his advantage in the final drive. Gold Cure followed the winner's pace closely for seven furlongs and quit in the stretch.

Scratched—33630 Flying Buttress, 118.

JOCKEYS HANDICAPPED.

DAILY RACING FORM will from now on publish each week a table of the rating of the jockeys riding at each track based on their performances in the saddle. The new riders at each track will be given the uniform rating of 100, and from that point the others will be graded down according to their estimated relative skill. For a difference of five points between the jockeys a corresponding five points change in the handicap figures assigned the horses in any race must be made. Only riders frequently in the saddle will be given a place in the tables. The following is the rating of the jockeys now riding over the various tracks:

Winner—Br. c, by Kinglike—Vanadis (trained by J. T. Mayberry).
Went to post at 2:30. Off at the first break. Start all strung out. Won driving; second easily. Farmer Jim ran Lampon in the first half and appeared an easy winner when a sixteenth out, but had to be driven out to the last ounce to beat Gold Bell, which finished strongly and would have won in another stride. Floarline could not extend herself in the soft going. Emir got off poorly and ran far below expectations. Lampon was taken care of by Farmer Jim. Olonetz showed a flash of early speed and probably does not like the soft going. The winner, entered for $1,500, was run up to $2,200 and bought by A. Simons.
Scratched—33625 Senor, 108; 33625 Maghoni, 103.
Overweights—Mi Reina, 2 pounds.

Winner—B. g, by St. Andrew—Marian (trained by P. Dunne).
Went to post at 3:05. Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily; second the same. Arian showed the most speed and was never in danger of being headed. He stumbled in the closing strides, but was so much the best it mattered little. Boaster made a bold bid in the last eighth, but hung in the closing strides. Foundling closed up ground in the last eighth and would have been close up at the finish had he not been cut off opposite the eighth post. Caliban appeared unable to do his best in the going. Scortic showed sudden improvement. Matin Bell ran well for six furlongs. Ravensbury ran a dull race.

Winner—Br. c, by Kinglike—Favonia (trained by "Doc" Riddle).
Went to post at 3:40. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. Favonius ran to his best form, but had to be driven out to the limit to win, as Wyeth was wearing him down fast at the end. Lyne, on Wyeth, appeared to notice only Nitrate for the first six furlongs. When he called on Wyeth the latter was too far back to have a winning chance. Omdurman hung on the colt and seemed to impede him around the bend from the half. Glen Water ran a much improved race and will bear watching from now on. Omdurman ran well for six and a half furlongs. Nitrate could not extend himself in the going in anywhere near his best form.

Winner—B. m, by Bona Vista—Fannie Relp (trained by E. Corrigan).
Went to post at 4:15. Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily; second handily. Rose Tree was much the best. She stood the stiff pace set by Nickey D. with ease and came away handily just after turning for home. Nickey D. revived suddenly and showed much speed, but was so tired at the end that he was swerving badly. Waswift closed up much ground in the last quarter and finished stoutly. Elsie L. was right there for five furlongs. Headwater appeared anchored with the weight and showed no speed. Escalante had early speed.

Winner—B. c, by Bend Or—Venne (trained by E. Wishard).
Went to post at 4:50. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Von Rouse was not called on until entering the last eighth, where he came up with a rush and won as his rider pleased. Silver Fringe displayed a keen turn of speed, but was tiring fast at the end and would have lost second place in a few more strides. Linguist showed sudden improvement. He made up ground in the last quarter and finished with a great rush. King's Lady had none of her usual speed and altogether ran a dull race.

Winner—Br. f, by Chorister—Hope On (trained by J. U. Strode).
Went to post at 5:25. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Lady Chorister ran the best race of her career, showed much speed throughout and when John McGurk threatened to close up on her in the last eighth came away without any trouble. The latter ran to his best form and had no mishaps. Compass was thoroughly beaten when turning for home. Tammany Chief ran a dull race and ceased to be a serious contender after the first mile had been run.

 Winner--B. c. by Albert--Leda (trained by J. Hynes).
 Went to post at 4:45. At post 3 minutes. Start straggling. Won driving; second the same. Military received a lucky start and stuck to his work gamely. Gibson Light, after getting away badly and running wide on the turns, was overhauling him fast at the end. Pleasant Sail went in improved form today and is due before long. The Pride of Surrey opened a wide gap on the field in the first six furlongs, but quit and is evidently a non-stayer. C. Rosenfeld was nearly left and made up twenty lengths on the leaders. Arak is best in mud always.
 Scratched--29123 Lucent, 101; 33605 Knight Templar, 86.
 Overweights--Cryptogram, 2 pounds; Thula, 2.
 Military, show, 7 to 10. Gibson Light, show, evens. Pleasant Sail, show, 7 to 5. The Pride of Surrey, show, 4 to 5.

 Winner--Ch. f. by St. Julien--Parish Queen (trained by B. Hurns).
 Went to post at 2:50. At post 10 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Blonde Grayson tiptoed her field after once getting the lead and was never in trouble. Ocie Brooks always held the others safe. Lelia Barr closed a big gap and finished stoutly. Maple also made up much ground from a slow beginning. Violent quit in the last furlong. Euclaire began slowly. Elizabeth Moan ran badly.
 Scratched--33519 Ethel Davis, 100.

 Winner--B. c. by Free Knight--Columbia (trained by C. Mulholland).
 Went to post at 3:32. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Lew Dorsey showed the most speed, set his own pace and won as his rider pleased. Hallucination was easily the best of the others and got second place without trouble. Murmur ran her race and was hard ridden all the way. Our Sallie ran a fair race and hung on gamely. La Mesla D. refused to break with her field and bolted on the backstretch.
 Scratched--33642 Miss Trappean, 100.
 Overweights--Lew Dorsey, 3 pounds; Bessie Simpson, 4; La Mesla D., 2.

 Winner--B. f. by Loyalist--Lythe (trained by John May).
 Went to post at 4:01. At post 4 minutes. Start poor. Won driving and all out; second the same. Clorita showed the most speed and opened up a gap that the others could never overcome, but had to be ridden to the limit to stall off Albula and St. Hera in the last eighth. Albula fought it out gamely and appeared to be winning fifty yards from home. St. Hera closed a big gap and came very fast in the stretch under a hard drive. Young Henry had no mishaps and was simply outrun. Cormac and All Souls were away poorly and Our Jessie was standing flatfooted when the barrier went up.
 Scratched--33667 Special Tat, 80.
 Clorita, show, 7 to 10. Albula, show, evens. St. Hera, show, out. Young Henry, show, out.
